

Dear Sir/Madam,

Europe Direct Bydgoszcz and Europe Direct Torun Information Centres, Robert Schuman European Centre and the University of the Economy announce the start of submission process for publication in the upcoming issue of scored and reviewed scientific journals: “European Studies and Analyses” (4 pt.) and “European Union – social and economic perspectives” (1 pt.).

The main aim of the journals is to present various aspects of the European Union, including various procedures and functioning of the EU, the legal system and decision making process within EU institutions, as well as social and economic dimensions of European integration and practical aspects of Polish membership in the EU.

In 2015 “European Studies and Analyses” vol. 13 and “European Union – social and economic perspectives” vol. 7 will focus on the 2015 political guidelines set out by the European Commission, including:

- EU working for citizens;
- Europe for Competitiveness, Jobs and Growth;
- Europe in the World;
- European Year for Development 2015;
- Promoting of the EU Policies regarding Energy and Climate Change.

Submission deadline – 31st july 2015

Those interested in publishing the article are invited to contact the Editor (centrum.europejskie@byd.pl). We invite you to inform us on the topic of the article. Before submission you should read carefully the “Journal content and editorial guidelines”. Authors are expected to submit:

- Article which meets the technical standards laid down in the “Journal content and editorial guidelines”;
 - Abstract of the article (approx. 600 characters) in Polish or English;
 - Short information about the author (please refer to the attached sample).
- Articles in both Polish and English are accepted.

We invite you to the cooperation!