

Dear Sir/Madam,

Europe Direct Bydgoszcz and Europe Direct Torun Information Centres, Robert Schuman European Centre and the University of the Economy announce the start of submission process for publication in the upcoming issue of scored and reviewed scientific journals: “European Studies and Analyses” (5 pt.) and “European Union – social and economic perspectives” (6 pt.).

The main aim of the journals is to present various aspects of the European Union, including various procedures and functioning of the EU, the legal system and decision making process within EU institutions, as well as social and economic dimensions of European integration and practical aspects of Polish membership in the EU.

In 2017 “European Studies and Analyses” vol. 15 and “European Union – social and economic perspectives” vol. 9 will focus on the 2017 political guidelines set out by the European Commission, including:

1. Jobs, Growth and Investment
2. Digital Single Market
3. Energy Union and Climate
4. Internal Market
5. A Deeper and Fairer Economic and Monetary Union
6. A balanced EU-US Free Trade Agreement
7. Justice and Fundamental Rights
8. Migration
9. A Stronger Global Actor
10. Democratic change

Source: President Juncker's Political Guidelines (15 July 2014) – A New Start for Europe: My Agenda for Jobs, Growth, Fairness and Democratic Change., [available online:] https://ec.europa.eu/priorities/sites/beta-political/files/juncker-political-guidelines_en.pdf

Submission deadline – 30th September 2017

Those interested in publishing the article are invited to contact the Editor (centrum.europejskie@byd.pl). We invite you to inform us on the topic of the article. Before submission you should read carefully the “Journal content and editorial guidelines”. Authors are expected to submit:

- Article which meets the technical standards laid down in the “Journal content and editorial guidelines”. Articles in both Polish and English are accepted;
- Abstract of the article (approx. 600 characters) in Polish or English;
- Short information about the author (please refer to the attached sample).

We invite you to the cooperation!